Total marks — 20

Choose one of the following two scenarios.

SCENARIO 1: Society

Last year you won a scholarship and spent a couple of months studying in China. You have been asked to write a report about your experience, in Chinese (Traditional), for your school/college website.

You must include the following information and you should try to add other relevant details:

- how you travelled and what you thought about the journey
- what your host family's flat was like
- what activities you enjoyed most
- how you helped the family around the house
- what you did to improve your language skills
- if you would recommend this experience to other young people.

You should write approximately 180–240 characters.

OR

SCENARIO 2: Employability

Last year you spent three weeks working in an international school in China. The local newspaper in China has asked you to write about your experience in Chinese (Traditional).

You must include the following information and you should try to add other relevant details:

- where you stayed and what the accommodation was like
- what you thought of the people you worked with
- what you did every day as part of your work experience
- what you did in your free time
- what you did to improve your Chinese
- if you would encourage other young people to do work experience in China.

You should write approximately 180–240 characters.
