Total marks — 20

Choose one of the following two scenarios.

SCENARIO 1: Society

Last year, you took part in a school trip to the West of China where you stayed with a local host family. You have been asked to write an article, in Chinese (Traditional), about your experience for the school/college magazine.

You must include the following information and you should try to add other relevant details:

- how you travelled and what you thought about the journey
- what your host family's flat was like
- what you liked/disliked about the area
- how you helped the family around the house
- what you did to improve your language skills
- whether you would consider working in another country in the future.

You should write approximately 180–240 characters.

OR

SCENARIO 2: Culture

Recently you visited China. You were invited to get together with some Chinese friends. You have been asked to write about your experience, in Chinese (Traditional), for your school/college website.

You must include the following information and you should try to add other relevant details:

- where you and your friends met and why they organised this
- how you got on with the new people you met
- what you thought of the food you tried
- what else you did during your stay in China
- what you thought of the places you visited
- if you would like to travel to China again.

You should write approximately 180–240 characters.
